

Canada Company Partners with Hockey Heroes Challenge Hockey School Scholarships Awarded to Two Military Children

NEWS:

Toronto, ON – August 9, 2015 - Canada Company, with its motto of “Many Ways to Serve,” is excited to partner with the Hockey Heroes Challenge. Two scholarships were awarded to children of military families to attend the Gretzky Hockey School held in Toronto the week of August 10 to 14.

William Heikkila, 14 years old, son of Captain Terry Heikkila, 2 MP Regiment, and Dylan Foster, 14 years old, son of CWO Darryl Foster, 4 CDSB Eng. Svcs, will spend a week immersed in hockey skills building, while learning from the best.

“We are very excited to announce this partnership and to be able to send these two well deserving boys to the Gretzky Hockey School” said Angela Mondou, President of Canada Company. “It’s important for us to support military families through initiatives like this.”

The Gretzky Hockey School offers a week-long experience of a lifetime. These scholarships for William and Dylan build on the Heroes Hockey Challenge, a charitable endeavour that raises funds and awareness for members of the military and their families.

Managed by the Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry Foundation, the Heroes Hockey Challenge fundraises for injured soldiers and their families, and the families of fallen soldiers.

For more information on Hockey Heroes Challenge and their various initiatives please visit: <http://heroeshockeychallenge.com/>.

About Canada Company:

Canada Company is a business-based, military focused charity, founded by AGF Management Limited CEO Blake Goldring M.S.M., LL.D., CFA. With a deep understanding of the effectiveness of military strategy, leadership and discipline, Canada Company connects the business community with military tested resources, and brings veterans together with employers for a seamless transition into the civilian workforce.

For more information, please contact:

Donna Mills
416.455.9034