Corporate Canada Converges on Montreal to hire Canadian Armed Forces Veterans

Montreal, October 16, 2014 – More than 30 national and provincial companies and educational institutions are gathering in Montreal at the Cathcart Armory on 29 October from 2:00 pm until 5:30 pm with one common goal - to hire Canadian Armed Forces Veterans and Reservists.

Fully supported by the Canadian Armed Forces and Veterans Affairs Canada, this exclusive Employer Coalition job fair is hosted by Canada Company as part of their Military Employment Transition (MET) Program. Canadian Veterans, Reservists and current-serving members who are transitioning from full-time military duty to civilian careers are all welcome to attend.

"Military men and women possess some amazing qualities that Corporate Canada needs," said Blake Goldring, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of AGF Management Limited, and Founder and Chairman of Canada Company. "When you "Hire-a-Vet" you hire someone who is professional, dedicated, loyal and above all mission-focused. I know, because I hire Vets."

Veterans, Reservists and current-serving members in transition are asked to register with the Canada Company MET Program at <http://bit.ly/ZykYK4>. Once your status as a Veteran, Reservist or current serving member is confirmed, you will be able to register for the job fair at <http://bit.ly/1nfQiby>.
